Being travel savvy will ensure a hassle-free vacation experience, and one of the most important things you can do is ensure that all travel documents are in order. An international driver's permit (IDP) is a must-have for anyone planning on driving overseas, and Auto Europe is here to help!

WHAT IS AN INTERNATIONAL DRIVER'S PERMIT?

An international driver's permit is a translated document presented in several languages. It acts as a supplement to domestic driver's licenses, allowing the holder to drive legally in a number of international destinations. The international driver's permit is only mandatory in some countries. We recommend having one when traveling outside of one's home country. This document, sometimes referred to as an international driver's permit, is designed to make traveling easier, eliminating potential language barriers and other problems that commonly occur when interacting with foreign officials.

WHY DO TRAVELERS NEED AN IDP?

When planning on driving overseas, one should apply for an international drivers permit as soon as possible. The IDP is used in conjunction with the driver's license from your country of residence and is legally mandatory in several European countries.

It is translated into several different languages, making it much easier to communicate with law enforcement or the local car rental desk if your client isn't fluent in the local language (or even if they are).

WHERE TO GET AN IDP

If your client is a licensed driver over the age of 18, they can apply for, and receive, the international permit in a fairly short amount of time, with little hassle. The only institution currently authorized to issue IDPs in Canada is the CAA. In order to obtain one, simply fill out the official CAA international driving permit application and submit it to your local CAA office.

HOW DO I GET A FREE IDP FROM AUTO EUROPE?

Simply send us a receipt from the CAA office, and we will deduct the full amount from your rental rate.* It only takes a few steps for your clients to get their international driver's permit, and they'll appreciate the peace of mind that comes with it. At Auto Europe, we make our valued travel agent relationships a priority, which is why we're happy to offer this opportunity to get your clients a free IDP!
